THE TIME EXTENDED.—Judge Doan and Commissioner Frakes held an adjourned term of county court here last Monday for the purpose of considering the question of taxes. It was decided, after mature consideration, to extend the time for the sheriff to make his return until the 15th day of June, No penalty will be added before that time.

LORD AND KINCAID. — Governor I Lord and Scoretary Kincaid are locking their horas in a manner that will probably lead up to a lawsuit. The governor went after his warrant for salary the other day and the accretary refused to give it. Hot words followed and the governor threatened mandamus proceedings to compell Kincaid to pay the quarter's salary. The secretary informed his excellency that he would keep him mandamusing for every quarter to the end of his official term.

ANNUAL ELECTION.— The annual city election took place here Monday evening and resulted in the selection of the following officers for the ensuing year: President of the council, E. E. Quick; councilmen, Richard Cox, A. H. Blakesley, H. R. Cliff, L. L. Decker; treasurer, W. B. Dillard; recorder, J. R. Beegle; marshal, Allan Robinson. A spirited opposition was made to part of the ticket but it was not sufficient to defeat any of the regular nominees. While the contest waxed warm, everything passed off in a good natured way.

Peter Lousignont, of Scappoose, was attending to legal business in this city Monday last.

Harry West, of Scappoose, was in town Monday interviewing the sheriff in regard to taxes.

Miss Amy George came down from Portland last Friday and visited relatives over Saturday.

FRISKY ANN ELIZA.—Ann Eliza Sanders Halcomb, belle of the Long Tom is again in trouble. For a couple of months she has been under bonds to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, and now a Monroe justice has put her under $400 bonds to keep the peace. Ann Eliza has, it appears, threatened to do bodily harm to Clerence Mansfield and Joseph Gueige, two Monroe teamsters. As a Monroe correspondent puts it, she declared she would "out their hearts out and shoot them through their respective livers." Eliza's new rampage is the outgrowth of the trouble over the county road for which A. Whithelm county road for which A. LOST HIS TONGUE,-John Wilson deputy county assessor of Lane county, was operated on for cancer of the tongue, at Good Samaritan hospital town site of Goble, was in this city in this city, March 21, his entire tongue being removed, says the Oregonian. The operation is a very unusual one, and is the more remarkable will be assessed by Wilson and the county's exchequer.

Mr. A. J. Rubert was a Portland visitor Tuesday. Mr. Rubert expects because Mr. Wilson can now talk plainly and has no difficulty in mak-ing himself understood. The physi-ciaus of the city are all interested in cians of the city are all interested in the case and pronounce it a remarkable one. Several weeks ago the salivary glands below the tongue were romoved but the operation did not check the growth of the cancer, and it was found necessary to remove the tongue itself. The patient has completely recovered from the effects of the operation and has returned to his bome in Eugene.

Rev. George B. VanWaters, of St. David's Episcopal church, Portland, was in this city last Friday viewing the progress made on the new church here.

Captain George Shaver is again at his old post of duty as pilot on the steamer G. W. Shaver, having severed his connection with the White Collar Line.

Ocean Rapping—Captain H. R. Robertson, of San Francisco, who was so successful last season in shipping a large raft of logs from Stella to the Bay City, has just completed arrangements for handling this year two similar rafts from the same point. Improvements to the plant at Stella will be made to the extent of $3000, and since which time he has been in the was seriously hurt about a month ago, since which time he has been in the lat of April for the building of the first raft, which it is expected will be towed out of the Columbia by May. The second raft will be ready for shipment by July. Mr. Robertson contemplates establishing permanently the business of ocean rafting at Stella. The teredo in San Francisco bay makes necassary the renewal of piling every three years. The Southern Pacific Company is thus in the market as a large and constant purchaser. Doubtless sea rafting will soon prove to be the basis of a large industry on the Columbia river.

In the letter Mr. Sorbin gives a rather crisp statement of the condition of affairs where he is. He says the country is boomed to death and men of all trades and professions are there, and there is nothing for them to do. A house of 20 rooms will reat at $200 per month, and others in proportion according to size. City lots sell at from $1000 to $6000; board and lodging is from $7 to $10 per week. The average laborer will get $2 per day, while professional men receive from $3 to $4 per day when they are lucky enough to find employment. There are now 1000 idle men in Rossland and those who command means are leaving. Freight from Portland there is $50 per ton and there is a 35 per cent duty. Snow is now four feet deep at Rossland.

A Carrol Keasey, who has been in St. Louis for the past two years, passed through this city one day last week on his way to the Rohalem valley. Mr. Keasey gave it as his opinion that business was improving east of the Rocky mountains.

It is said that $0,000 applications for appointment have been filed at Washington and there is many more, no doubt, on the way. The department officials have their hands full in handling the place hunters aside from attending to their public duties.

morning of last week our citizens were astonished and delighted to see both the stars and the stripes floating from the top of the court-house flag pole. For some months pass all that could be seen of the old court-house flag was a few of the stars on a triangular piece of what was once a flag suspended from the staff, so that the sight of a splendid new flag was quite noticeable. Diligent inquiry failed to reveal the origin of the flag, which had been put in place sometime during Wednesday night. Some thought it was an April fool scheme, while others surmised that the court house officials had purchased it.
